

Minister of Trade and Industry, Mr Ebrahim Patel delivering the Budget Vote Speech 2019/2020 in the National Council of Provinces. He announced that the process of merging the Economic Development and the dti has begun, and will be completed in March next year, to form the Department of Trade Industry and Competition. The new department will come into effect officially on 1 April 2020.